AN ACT

To amend section 304 (d) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, with respect to the disposition of certain imported articles which have been seized and condemned.

August 31, 1957
[H. R. 6456]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That subsection (d) of section 304 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended (21 U. S. C. 334 (d)), is hereby amended by inserting immediately before the last sentence thereof a new sentence as follows: "If the article was imported into the United States and the person seeking its release establishes (1) that the adulteration, misbranding, or violation did not occur after the article was imported, and (2) that he had no cause for believing that it was adulterated, misbranded, or in violation before it was released from customs custody, the court may permit the article to be delivered to the owner for exportation in lieu of destruction upon a showing by the owner that all of the conditions of section 801 (d) can and will be met: Provided, however, That the provisions of this sentence shall not apply where condemnation is based upon violation of section 402 (a) (1), (2), or (6), section 501 (a) (3), section 502 (j), or section 601 (a) or (d): And provided further, That where such exportation is made to the original foreign supplier, then clauses (1) and (2) of section 801 (d) and the foregoing proviso shall not be applicable; and in all cases of exportation the bond shall be conditioned that the article shall not be sold or disposed of until the applicable conditions of section 801 (d) have been met."
