AN ACT

To amend section 109(g) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949.

July 5, 1960
[H. R. 9541]

Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, amendment.
64 Stat. 579.
5 USC 630g.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 109(g) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 377, as amended) is amended to read as follows:

“(g) Whenever any producer or vendor shall tender any article or commodity for sale or lease to the General Services Administration or to any procurement authority acting under the direction and control of the Administrator pursuant to this Act, the Administrator is authorized in his discretion, with the consent of such producer or vendor, to cause to be conducted, in such manner as the Administrator shall specify, such tests as he shall prescribe either to determine whether such article or commodity conforms to prescribed specifications and standards, or to aid in the development of contemplated specifications and standards. When the Administrator determines that the making of such tests will serve predominantly the interest of such producer or vendor, he shall charge such producer or vendor a fee which shall be fixed by the Administrator in such amount as will recover the cost of conducting such tests, including all components of such cost, determined in accordance with accepted accounting principles. When the Administrator determines that the making of such tests will not serve predominantly the interest of such producer or vendor, he shall charge such producer or vendor such fee as he shall determine to be reasonable for the furnishing of such testing service. All such fees collected by the Administrator may be deposited in the general supply fund to be used for any purpose authorized by subsection 109(a) of this Act.”

Approved July 5, 1960.
