

SEC. 7. (a) In making any award under this joint resolution the arbitration board established under section 2 shall give due consideration to the effect of the proposed award upon adequate and safe transportation service to the public and upon the interests of the carrier and employees affected, giving due consideration to the narrowing of the areas of disagreement which has been accomplished in bargaining and mediation.

(b) The obligations imposed by this joint resolution, upon suit by the Attorney General, shall be enforceable through such orders as may be necessary by any court of the United States having jurisdiction of any of the parties.

Expiration date.

SEC. 8. This joint resolution shall expire one hundred and eighty days after the date of its enactment, except that it shall remain in effect with respect to the last sentence of section 4 for the period prescribed in that sentence.

SEC. 9. If any provision of this joint resolution or the application thereof is held invalid, the remainder of this joint resolution and the application of such provision to other parties or in other circumstances not held invalid shall not be affected thereby.

Approved August 28, 1963.

69 Stat. 603.

SEC. 2. Section 6(c)(2) of the Universal Military Training and Service Act, as amended (50 U.S.C. App. 456(c)(2)), is further amended to read as follows:

"(A) Any person, other than a person referred to in subsection (d) hereof, who, prior to attaining the age of twenty-six years and prior to the issuance of orders for him to report for induction, enlists or accepts appointment in the Ready Reserve of any reserve component of the Armed Forces, the Army National Guard, or the Air National Guard, shall be deferred from training and service under this Act so long as he serves satisfactorily as a member of an organized unit of such Ready Reserve or National Guard in accordance with section 270 of title 10 or section 502 of title 32, United States Code, as the case may be, or satisfactorily performs such other Ready Reserve service as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Defense. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (h) hereof, no person deferred under this clause who has completed six years of such satisfactory service as a member of the Ready Reserve or National Guard, and who during such service has performed active duty for training with an armed force for not less than four consecutive months, shall be liable for induction for training and service under this Act, except after a declaration of war or national emergency made by the Congress after August 9, 1955.

Corporation Act
Amendments of 1963.

D. C. Code
29-904.

D. C. Code
29-907a.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the District of Columbia Business Corporation Act, approved June 8, 1954 (68 Stat. 179; D.C. Code 29-901), is amended as follows:

(1) Section 4 of such Act is amended by adding at the end of subsection (h) the following new sentence: "No corporation formed hereunder shall plead any statutes against usury in any action."

(2) Section 11 of such Act is amended by adding the following subsections at the end thereof:

"(e) The registered agent of one or more domestic corporations may change the address of the registered office of such domestic corporation or corporations by filing with the Commissioners a statement setting forth:

"(1) the name of the registered agent;

"(2) the present address, including street and number, if any, of such registered agent;

"(3) the names of the corporation or corporations represented by such registered agent at such address;

"(4) the address, including street and number, if any, to which the office of such registered agent is to be changed; and

"(5) the date upon which such change will take place.

"(f) Such statement shall be executed in duplicate by such registered agent in his individual name, but if such agent is a corporation, domestic or foreign, such statement shall be executed by such corporation by its president or vice president and the corporate seal shall be thereto affixed, attested by its secretary or an assistant secretary and delivered to the Commissioners. If the Commissioners find that such statement conforms to law, they shall, when all fees and charges have been paid as prescribed in this Act:
