Public Law 89-747

AN ACT

November 2, 1966
[H. R. 18217]

To provide home leave for Federal seafaring personnel, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That title 5, United States Code, is amended as follows:

Federal seafaring personnel.

(1) Section 6305 is amended by inserting the following new subsection at the end thereof:

Ante, p. 520.

“(c) An officer, crewmember, or other employee serving aboard an oceangoing vessel on an extended voyage may be granted leave of absence, under regulations of the Civil Service Commission, at a rate not to exceed two days for each thirty calendar days of that service without regard to other leave provided by this subchapter. Leave so granted—

“(1) accumulates for future use without regard to the limitation in section 6304 (b) of this title;

“(2) may not be made the basis for a lump-sum payment; and

“(3) may not be made the basis for terminal leave except under such special or emergency circumstances as may be prescribed under the regulations of the Commission.”

(2) Section 6305 is further amended by amending the catchline to read as follows:

“§ 6305. Home leave; leave for Chiefs of Missions; leave for crews of vessels”.

(3) The analysis of chapter 63 is amended by striking out the following item:

“6305. Home leave; leave for Chiefs of Missions.”

and by inserting the following item in place thereof:

“6305. Home leave; leave for Chiefs of Missions; leave for crews of vessels.”

Approved November 2, 1966.
